OUR MISSION

Chaminade Julienne Catholic High School is an educational community of faith. Inspired by the goodness of God, we commit to educating the whole person, working for justice, and developing family spirit. We offer a quality, integral learning experience to a culturally diverse student population. Grounded in the gospel message of Jesus Christ as reflected in Catholic Tradition and the charisms of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur and the Society of Mary, we prepare young men and women to become lifelong learners, contributing members of society and people of compassion, integrity, and service.

As a Catholic institution, Chaminade Julienne adheres to the Christian concept that employment opportunities are based on individual abilities without regard to race, national origin, gender, age, or non-disqualifying physical or mental handicap. This policy applies to all aspects of employment including hiring, promotion, demotion, recruitment, training, compensation, benefits, and termination.
